CONGRESSIONAL RETURNS

Thomas Claims Third.

New Bern, May 17.—After the first preferential primary ever held in North Carolina, the defeat of Congressman John M. Faison for the nomination in the Third seems certain and ex-Congressman Charles R. Thomas claims the lead.

Webb Won Out.

Charlotte, May 12.—It was early known here that Congressman E. Yates Webb, of Shelby, had defeated E. R. Preston, of Charlotte, for Congress in the Ninth District. Mr. Webb being renominated by a handsome majority, carrying every county in the District.

Page Wins.

Charlotte, May 17.—The latest returns increase the majority by which Congressman R. N. Page, of Moore, has defeated R. F. Beasley, of Union.

Result in Tenth in Doubt.

Asheville, May 16.—Scattering returns from seven of the counties in the Tenth Congressional district indicate that the fight for the nomination for Congress will go to the convention floor. Indications are that the vote will be pretty well divided between Reynolds and Guder, Merrimon is running third.

Dr. David Millard, of Baltimore, is in the city.

Rev. John Hall, presiding elder of the Raleigh district was in the city today, the guest of Rev. N. H. D. Wilson.

The Argus was in error in stating that Miss Eleanor Taylor graduated last week from the Durham Conservatory of Music. She was a medal winner, but is not yet a graduate.

Mrs. Ralph Graves, of New York nee Miss Louise Holt, of Burlington where she has been on a visit to her parents Mr. and Mrs. Banks Holt, is in the city for a few days, the guest of Mr. Graves' parents, Maj. and Mrs. D. H. Graves, on Chestnut street, east.

Relatives in this city yesterday received the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. C. W. Taylor, a prosperous and highly esteemed farmer of Bogue, near Morehead which resulted in consequence of a surgical operation in the hospital at Morehead City. He is survived by his wife, who was Miss Gertrude Humphrey, and several children, besides a wide circle of near relatives to mourn his untimely taking off.

News today to friends in this city from the bedside of Mr. W. S. McGregor, who is so seriously ill at the home of his mother in Lilesville, N. C., where Mrs. McGregor is with him is to the effect that he is slightly improved, though the improvement is not sufficient to give rise to any hope of his recovery, which is well-nigh abandoned; and this is indeed a source of deep sorrow to their hosts of friends in this city.
